12:15 - 12:30	Conclusion - Chiara Tommasini

CSVnet and Medi Study Center presented online the research "I participate therefore I give. The solidarity engagement of people of immigrant origin beyond the pandemic."

The survey is edited by Maurizio Ambrosini and Deborah Erminio of Medi Study Center and is promoted by CSVnet, with the collaboration of Italian Volunteer Service Centers.

Three years after the first survey, dedicated mainly to foreign people's engagement in volunteering, the focus of this new study is the broader practices of giving and helping that have involved people of immigrant origin, starting with two dramatic events for our country: the Covid-19 pandemic and the reception of refugees fleeing the Russian-Ukrainian conflict.

Appointment online, on CSVnet's YouTube and Facebook channels, from 11 a.m. to 12:30 p.m., for the presentation of the report. (recording available here: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=FWCXoDFQGnY>)

After introductory speeches by CSVnet board member Luisella Lunghi and Medi Study Center director Andrea Torre, curators Ambrosini and Erminio presented highlights of the study; "I participate therefore I donate" the video made by the Genau agency was also be presented,
